Theme Forum

9:30-10:50 Theme Forum 1: Globalization and Global Economic Situation

According to World Economic Outlook issued by the International Monetary Fund in October, 2017, we recognize that there is obviously growing upward pressure in the world economy and a up-regulation of prediction to the world economic growth for this year and next. Moreover, the world economic recovery remains unaccomplished, in which lots of countries' economies remain at low growth. Meanwhile, global challenges are increasing, "deglobalization" included, resulting the emerging economies facing new challenges in development and cooperation.

- What are the challenges and problems in the globalization?
- What is the prospect of global economic recovery?
- Present condition and obstacles in the global multilateral economic and trade cooperation and regional integration process
- How to respond to protectionism and promote trade and investment facilitation for emerging economies?
- How will BRICS lead to build the new globalization?

Cai Chunlin (President, Guangdong Emerging Economies Society; Professor, Guangdong University of Technology)

10:50-11:10 Tea Break

11:10-12:30 Theme Forum 2: Emerging Economies and Sustainable Development Goals

The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development by the United Nations took effect officially in January, 2016. The agenda calls on countries taking actions and working hard to achieve 17 sustainable development goals in the next 15 years. Viewing development as the top priority, emerging economies should further strengthen cooperation and solidarity so as to implement the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

- How will emerging economies dock their own development strategies on the sustainable development agenda?
- How to improve development to the key position in the macro policy coordination?
- How to give more support to emerging economies and developing countries according to the principle of common but differentiated responsibilities?
- How to play a role in enhancing global development governance for the UN?
- What's the role of BRICS's development in the global economic development?

12:30-14:00 Lunch (All-Day Dining Hall, 2nd Floor, Block 2)

14:00-15:30 Theme Forum 3: Emerging Economies and the Construction of the “ Belt and Road”

The “Belt and Road” Initiative proposed by China offers a new platform and many opportunities for emerging economies' cooperation. Over the past four years, lots of emerging economies has actively supported and participated in the construction of the Belt and Road, and reached a series of practical cooperation agreements. The “Belt and Road” Forum for International Cooperation was held successfully in May, 2017, which sends a signal that emerging economies' cooperation under the framework of the Belt and Road steps into a new developing stage.

- What challenges and opportunities will the “Belt and Road” meet?
- How does the “Belt and Road” usher in a new epoch for human civilization?
- How does emerging economies play an important role in the construction of the “Belt and Road”?
- How does the “Belt and Road” facilitate the establishment of global partnership network?
- How to push forward emerging economies' cooperation on trade, investment and finance under the framework of the “Belt and Road”?
- How to further dock development strategies of emerging economies on the “Belt and Road” initiative?

15:30-15:50 Tea Break

15:50-17:20 Theme Forum 4: Emerging Economies and Global Governance

With the rising overall strength of emerging economies, the global governance structure has constantly changed. To adapt the changing global political and economic situation, deeper adjustment and reform must be conducted to global governance for new energy, idea and pattern. Emerging economies play an irreplaceable role in reshaping the global governance.

- What is the role for emerging economies to play in the global governance?
- How will emerging economies advance the adjustment and reform of the global governance?
- What opportunities and challenges will emerging economies meet in the global governance?
- How will emerging countries conduct risk governance and cooperation?
- Can BRICS lead the global governance?
